

Treetop Tales

Hōtoke-Kōanga (Winter-Spring) 2022

Kia ora Bianka,

Welcome to Treetop Tales, a roundup of the latest news, advice, events and other happenings at BirdCare Aotearoa – especially for our wonderful supporters.

We've had a steady winter season, with a late botulism season trailing into winter – no doubt due partly to the unseasonably warm temperatures. Our winter season patients unfortunately tend to be the result of preventable anthropomorphic issues. Like last year, many of our patients have been kererū recovering from window strikes, songbirds recovering from cat attacks, and ducks who have been hit by cars.

As the ducklings start trickling into the centre, and we begin to receive reports of nesting masked lapwing and pūkeko (with the season's first lapwing chick now in care!), we're gearing up for another extremely busy spring and summer.

One of 16 ruru admitted to BirdCare Aotearoa over winter, many of whom arrived with head trauma.

Vote Cookie for Bird of the Year!

Have you heard we're running our first-ever Bird of the Year (BOTY) campaign? That's right – we're proud to be campaigning for the Cook's petrel for BOTY 2022!

To celebrate our campaign, Tania Mallow Jewellery is releasing a second (and final) batch of ten Cook's petrel necklaces, with 10% of sales going to BirdCare. Keep an eye on Tania's website to make sure you don't miss out!

One of the many reasons Cookie thinks you should #votecookie for BOTY 2022.

Follow our campaign at the links below and be sure to #votecookie when BOTY voting opens on 17 October.

Regular giving made easier

You'll be pleased to hear we've updated our website to make it easier for you to sign up for regular giving.

Regular donations give us stability, allow us to plan for the future, and ensure that our doors can remain open. BirdCare needs around $650,000 a year to function, so every dollar counts. Even $5 a week – the cost of a coffee – helps immensely.

This money funds high quality food for our patients, medical supplies and equipment, and our vet/clinician and tiny team who manage the much larger team of volunteers. This money saves lives.

A massive thank you to our existing regular donors and also to our brand new regular donors who signed up this month. You are all wonderful. ❤️

Keep our doors open for wild birds

This beautiful tauhou (silvereye) was not only covered in a sticky substance but also survived a cat attack. Your support enabled our team to nurse this little bird back to health so that he could be released back into nature.

Moho pererū release

Thanks to your support, we released three moho pererū (banded rails), whom we'd raised from hatch. Special thanks to those of you who donated towards the care of these birds during their many months at BirdCare (they had very discerning taste in food!).

Save the dates!

We have some great events coming up, including:

Generosity Generator Crowdfunding Campaign (15 – 29 September 2022)

We're working on an exciting crowdfunding campaign. It goes live on Givealittle on Thursday 15 September and we can't wait to share it with you! Stay tuned for more details over the coming weeks.

Tabletop Exercise – Building Community Preparedness to Protect Wildlife (18 October 2022)

This event, which is part of the Auckland Climate Festival, will bring together individuals and agencies who play a role in protecting wildlife from the impacts of an extreme weather event. For more information and to register your interest, please email lynn.miller@birdcareotearoa.org.nz.

Auckland Marathon (30 October 2022)

Following the success of our amazing runners and walkers in Round the Bays, we're now winging our way towards a marathon! There's still time to train and, if you prefer, there are shorter distances and a kid's option available. Sign up today! 🏃

Patient spotlight: kōtare returns

Kōtare with DOC band on right leg and BirdCare Aotearoa temporary in-house band on left leg.

This young kōtare arrived with an injured wing... and a Department of Conservation leg band! We were thrilled to find that this was one of the kōtare we had raised in our nursery last season. He had been thriving in the wild for several months post-release, until his accident. He was otherwise healthy and had a great body condition score. This is such useful information for us, as it shows that our young kingfishers are doing well following rehabilitation and release. After vet care, pain relief, bandaging, laser therapy, and physio, this little one was ready to be released for a second time. Fly safely little kōtare!

Life-saving medical equipment

Thanks to the Mazda Foundation, this month we were able to purchase two new infusion pumps and two cold laser therapy units! This essential equipment will make a huge difference to the care of our patients.

How would you like to support us?

As our admissions increase every year, we need your help now more than ever before. Besides monetary donations, there are many ways you can support us to provide life-saving care for birds, including:

- Making in-kind donations of food, veterinary supplies, building materials and other items
- Buying gifts that support our birds (scroll down to see our fabulous new merchandise from local artists!)
- Donating/sponsoring merchandise for us to sell
- Telling other people about BirdCare and encouraging them to support us
- Connecting us with businesses who would like to sponsor or partner with us
- Volunteering at the centre...or outside the centre – if your community group, school or workplace would like to organise a fundraiser for BirdCare or participate in a working bee, please email volunteer@birdcareaotearoa.org.nz.

Art auctions celebrate birdlife

We're incredibly grateful for the generosity of two talented artists who created one-off, original artworks to support BirdCare. Cathy Brickhill of Cathy Jane Designs created a stunning moho pererū (banded rail) sculptural embroidery and Olivia Bezett created a beautiful pīwakawaka (fantail) drawing.

"As soon as I laid my eyes on the artwork I was captured by its beauty, and then also by its intricate level of detail... He looks as though he has a little (whimsical) smile on his face and has a character all of his own. I am sure it will be one of my most prized possessions."

- Message from the new custodian of Cathy's artwork

We love collaborating with artists! If you or anyone you know would like to donate an artwork or a portion of the proceeds of the sale of your art, please get in touch.

Because of you, these birds got a second chance at life. Thank you for caring!

Kakīnau (black swan) who arrived at BirdCare underweight and dehydrated, and with a gastrointestinal infection. She was characterised as "feisty," chasing our staff members every time she was fed. Even at her release, she turned to face Dani and Chris who released her, before confronting a curious pūkeko.
